

January 2018

Farewell and thanks: Martin Sträb leaves the Güdel Group

Mr. Martin Sträb, CEO of Güdel Group, has left the company by mutual agreement at the beginning of 2018.

Mr. Sträb has been a Member of the Güdel Group Board of Directors since 2009 and, following the unexpected death of the owner, Mr. Rudolf Güdel, in September 2014, was appointed President of the Board of Directors. Mr. Sträb held operational roles in the company, both, as President of the Board of Directors and CEO until January, 2017 at which point the President of the Board of Directors role was assumed by Gwendolin Güdel. In his time with the company Mr. Sträb made a significant contribution to ensuring the continuity of the Güdel Group.

The Güdel family would like to thank Mr. Sträb for his outstanding commitment during his many years' of service with the Güdel Group. They wish Mr. Sträb much success for the future, both personally and professionally.